Super Bowl of Sex Trafficking

Tackle the Traffickers

Anytime a major event such as the Super Bowl comes into town, a massive influx of tourists, money, and a no holds barred party atmosphere attract the prostitution scene.

In an effort to combat the inevitable proliferation of child prostitution the KlaasKids Foundation and the Florida Coalition Against Human Trafficking (FCAHT) teamed up to conduct an all-out blitz against sex trafficking during the Super Bowl in Tampa, Florida.

Operation: Tackle the Traffickers included more than 45 volunteers who targeted hotels, restaurants, gas stations and other businesses in Tampa, St. Petersburg and Clearwater during Super Bowl weekend. Morgan Dennis of the KlaasKids Foundation supplied the majority of the intelligence reporting during the event. Her analysis was conducted on-line using Craigslist as well as several other websites used by providers and customers. Areas that were targeted were selected based upon intelligence analysis derived from the Internet.

FCAHT event organizer Giselle Rodriguez recruited volunteers from the local Human Trafficking Coalition and several colleges. She compiled an enormous amount of anti-trafficking literature that outreach workers then supplied to business owners prior to the Super Bowl. Outreach workers received a tremendous response from the business owners. Several of the hotel managers requested follow-up training for their staff so that in the future they would be able to better identify sex trafficking. More importantly, the outreach effort developed several leads regarding the sex trafficking of minors.

Many of our readers have asked us questions regarding the types of cases that KlaasKIDS Foundation is involved in.

Below is a brief peak into the inner workings of the KlaasKIDS Foundation during the period of this report – January 24 – February 7.

Staff and volunteers were involved in the Human Trafficking Outreach “Tackle the Trafficker” in Tampa, Florida.

Our volunteer search and rescue team was involved in two separate missing person cases:

- ◆ Assisted in the successful recovery of Alzheimer’s patient in Destin, Florida;
- ◆ Assisted in the search for a homicide victim in Atmore, Alabama.

Our staff assisted the family of a missing 16 year-old girl from Michigan who was lured to Puerto Rico by a 26 year-old man.

Our staff assisted investigators involved in the cold case investigation of a missing 14 year-old from Florida.

Super Defense – Tampa Law Enforcement

Area law enforcement agencies including the Tampa Police Department and the Hillsborough County Sheriff’s Department conducted numerous sting operations during the days leading up to the Super Bowl. Their efforts produced impressive results.

Law enforcements efforts to squash the proliferation of prostitution were apparent everywhere we looked. Street prostitution along popular tracks like Dale Mabry and Nebraska Ave were nonexistent. Customers using the popular website www.usasexguide.info constantly updated their special thread to discuss the oppressive law enforcement presence.

| Oldcenturion Regular Member Reports: 5 | Increased LEO Activities I can't recall which TV news I heard this on today but they mentioned that the LEO units would be using "attractive decoys" during night actions. They interviewed a rather gruff looking LEO captain who stated they have noticed a big increase in Craigslist ads and would take action. Stay safe out there guys. Regards, the Old Centurion |

Sting operations focused on street prostitution, strip clubs and massage parlors during the days leading up to the big game. On Monday, January 26th their operations netted 13 arrests. On Thursday, January 29th they had added an additional 19 arrests. By Friday night potential customers were hard pressed to find any street prostitution in Tampa.■

GOT FOLKS.COM

Got Folks.com originated in 2006 but didn't really come on the scene until October 2008. This website and its on-line magazine are growing in recognition and feature a series of on-line chat connections using the popular "chat-n-go" system.

The magazine recently announced its growing popularity within the sex industry community by launching a new look on its website with added features. One feature that caught our interest is the upcoming launch of Got Folks.TV. This new addition will feature video shot within the sex industry.

Got Folks.Com was actively advertising its website in several locations, including Tampa's Craigslist during the Super Bowl. ■
